GOV. EASLEY NAMES WILSON TO ROCKINGHAM COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

RALEIGH— Gov. Mike Easley today named Edwin G. Wilson, Jr., an Eden lawyer with substantial civil and criminal trial experience, to Rockingham County's Superior Court bench. Wilson will fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Judge Peter McHugh.

“Ed Wilson has a fine legal mind and a passion for public service. For years, he has served his community and state with distinction while maintaining an active and successful civil and criminal law practice. I am proud to appoint him to be a Superior Court judge,” Easley said.

Wilson, a partner with the law firm of Maddrey, Wilson, Etringer & Smith, is a graduate of Wake Forest University's School of Law. In addition to his legal work, Wilson is a board member for the Clean Water Management Trust Fund and the N.C. Center for Voter Education. He also serves in the U.S. Army Reserve.
